FALL

*May the road
rise up to meet you,
May the wind be always
at your back,
May the sun shine warm
upon your face,
And the rain fall soft
upon your fields,
And until we meet again,
May God hold you,
In the palm of his hand.*

*Our friendship has taken on new meaning
In the long time since.
We traded comic books and shared
The same heros.*

*Now we rarely see each other,
But when we do meet,
We set for hours discussing our lives,
And it is as though we never parted.*

*It is comforting to know
That what ever happens
Weather good or bad,
There is a friend who will understand.*

A black and white photograph of three young men posing in front of a rustic stone building. The man in the center is standing in a dark doorway, wearing a plaid shirt. The man on the left is sitting on a stone ledge, wearing a dark sweater and light pants. The man on the right is also sitting on a stone ledge, wearing a striped sweater and light pants. The stone wall is made of irregular, light-colored stones.

SPRING

Spring
Each of us exist
Separate and alone.
This is your spring,
Your precious time
To blossom,
To be.
Will you be with me?

LEONARD NIMOY

A black and white photograph of a rock band performing live. The band consists of four members: a guitarist on the left, a bassist in the center, a singer in the foreground, and another guitarist on the right. They are in a dimly lit room with a drum set visible in the background.
